

Lucky Me (words by Mary Amato; music by Mary Amato and Bill Williams)

The original recording for this song is in the key of Em. The Am key is an easier key for lots of people to sing.

VERSE

Am G C G
The sun was tied up in clouds and the moon wrung out of its songs
Am G C G
Up on 12th Street the trees were just trees, holding nothing but leaves in their arms
Am G C G
All my days were locked in a closet with the rags and the brooms and the mops
Am G C G
Nothing to feel but the feel of nothing slipping through keyholes and locks

CHORUS

Am G D Dm
But you know what I need you strum against my strings and make me
Am C G
Sing...
F C G
Sing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me
F C G
Sing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me

VERSE

Am G C G
You were telling your little white lie making everybody happy, crying inside
Am G C G
Stayed so long with what they chose, you almost missed what you needed most
Am G C G
All your days were stuck in a rhythm that you couldn't change or stop
Am G C G
Nothing to say 'cause your words and emotions were twisted and chained in a knot

CHORUS

Am G D Dm
But I know what you need I strum against your strings and make you
Am C G
Sing...
F C G
Sing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me
F C E7
Sing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me

BRIDGE

Am G C G
We can't let this pass us by, can't let it go without a fight
Am G
We are who we're meant to be

F C G
Singing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me
F C G
Sing lucky lucky, lucky lucky me (you make me sing)
F C G
Lucky lucky, lucky lucky me
REPEAT TO END
