Let it Snow (Easy) Songwriters: Jule Styne / Sammy Cahn

Tune your uke to GCEA. Your starting note to sing is "G."

Oh, the weather outside is frightful But the fire is so delightful

And since we've no place to go Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow

It doesn't show signs of stoppin' And I brought some corn for poppin'
The lights are turned way down low Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow

When we finally kiss good-night How I'll hate going out in the storm
But if you really hold me tight All the way home I'll be warm

And the fire is slowly dying And, my dear, we're still good-bye-ing
But as long as you love me so Let it snow, let it snow, and snow

When we finally kiss good-night How I'll hate going out in the storm
But if you really hold me tight All the way home I'll be warm

Oh the fire is slowly dying And, my dear, we're still good-bye-ing
But as long as you love me so Let it snow, let it snow, let it snow

- smoke rising from a chimney as seen from afar—it means smoke in Catalan.
- the sound of a drum (or perhaps the strumming of a guitar or playing of a fiddle).
- an onomatopoeia imitating the noise of a rocking cradle.

C G7 F C
Should auld acquaintance be forgot, and days of auld lang syne?

Chorus

C G7 C F
For auld lang syne, my dear, for auld lang syne
C G7 F C
We'll tak' ae cup o'kindness yet, for auld lang syne

We twa hae rin about the braes, and pud the gowans fine
But we've wander'd mony a weary step, sin' auld lang syne.

We twa hae paidl'd in the burn, frae morning sun till dine
But seas between us braid hae roar'd, sin' auld lang syne.

And surely ye'll be your pint-stowp, and surely I'll be mine
And we'll tak ae cup o'kindness yet, for auld lang syne.

And there's a haund, my trusty fiere, and gie's a haund o' thine
And we'll tak' ae richt guid wullie- waught, for auld lang syne.
